PARNELL DEPOSED.

A Split in the Nationalist Party.

STORMY SCENE IN CONFERENCE

Parnell Tears Up the Resolution Offered for His Retirement and Then Forty-Five of His Opponents Withdraw and Form a Conference of Their Own—Other Foreign News.

London, Dec. 8.—At 1 o'clock Saturday the Irish members of the house of commons, who are considering the advisability of retiring Mr. Parnell from the leadership of the Nationalist party, reassembled in the committee room of the house of commons, which has been set apart for their use.

The first business transacted was the reading of Mr. Gladstone's letter in reply to the committee who were appointed to negotiate with the Liberal leader regarding the control of the Irish constabulary and a settlement of the agrarian difficulty. Mr. Gladstone remained firm in his determination to in no way recognize Mr. Parnell as the leader of the Nationalists, and his position was emphasized by his letter, in which he offered to conduct negotiations with a new Irish leader on a footing of confidence equal to that which he once accorded to Mr. Parnell. In this course Mr. Gladstone is supported by Harcourt Morley, Earl Spencer and the whole of his party, many of whom thought he had gone too far already.

Sexton declared that before the day had closed Parnell should be driven out. This provoked a violent storm, which raged for some minutes, Parnell's position as chairman gave him power to put a resolution to the meeting or to refuse. This kept all his opponents at bay. At last Abraham brought up a resolution declaring Parnell's leadership at an end. Then ensued a tremendous scene, Justin McCarthy held out his hand to receive the resolution, intending to put it to the meeting, ignoring the chairman, but Parnell, suddenly reaching over, struck McCarthy's hand, seized the resolution and tore it up in the face of the meeting.

Justin McCarthy, who thus far had acted with Parnell, declaimed passionately against the chairman, accusing him of insulting his father and betraying his country, and went over to the opposition camp, and amid the wildest excitement Sexton, Healy, McCarthy and the rest of the opposition to the number of forty-five walked out of the room and held a meeting of their own. They passed a resolution of an abstract kind affirming their adhesion to the doctrines of Home Rule as ratified by the Irish people, and proceeded to write a manifesto.

The Parnellites, it is understood, are anxious to force an appeal to the country as soon as possible, and claim that their antagonists are afraid to submit the issue of their conduct to the people.

It is stated on the alleged authority of Timothy Healy that the party headed by Justin McCarthy will continue to keep their seats, without any resignations, holding the cause of Home Rule and waiting for time to bring about a sober and deliberate judgment in the now excited Irish constituencies.

Mr. Barry said Saturday that Mr. Parnell's cause would lose, instead of gaining, with the progress of time, and that the next general election would see him beaten by Isaac Butt. Parnell, on the other hand, is said to be entirely confident, and to be already selecting successors for those who have deserted him. He is in ample funds, as since the division in the party several American organizations have forwarded money directly to him, instead of to the treasurers formerly appointed.

A large proportion of the Irish members have been in receipt of stipends for their services in parliament, and it is difficult to see how those disconnected from Parnell are to receive their salaries hereafter as the common fund is locked up by the imbroglio. One of the first tasks of the McCarthys will necessarily be to devise some scheme of raising a fund independent of that heretofore relied upon for parliamentary expenses, and it is not likely that either faction will obtain much money from the Irish people until the question of supremacy is settled.

Mr. Justin McCarthy, as chairman of the Irish parliamentary party, has addressed a circular to all the Irish members, including Mr. Parnell, summoning them to meet at 2 o'clock to-day. The first business to come before the meeting will be the selection by ballot of a consulting committee of eight.

The anti-Parnellites are discussing the advisability of having Messrs. O'Brien and Dillon return via France, in which country a convention could be held for the purpose of obtaining their advice before they submitted to re-arrest and imprisonment.

Messrs. Gilhooley, P. O'Brien, Carew and Mahon are still classed as doubtful. This makes the Healy-McCarthy party's strength fifty and the Parnellites thirty-one.

The Feeling in Ireland.

DUBLIN, Dec. 8.—Ireland was ablaze with excitement yesterday, many public meetings being held, and the split in the party being the topic of conversation and discussion everywhere. The bishop's manifesto condemning Parnell was read in all the churches at mass, and the priests added exhortations to the people to obey the spirit of that document in their political action. The people did not seem to take kindly to this clerical interference in some cases, and at Mitchelstown and Kilkenney the Nationalists met after service and adopted resolutions supporting Parnell.

In Armagh the priests propose to stamp the country against Parnell. It is believed, however, that on the hole the church will confine itself to moral suasion. The excitement in London political circles is intense, and to-day's action of the Irish factions in parliament is awaited with the greatest interest, particularly as there are rumors of startling developments in the way of a Tory-Irish alliance.

Female Nihilist's Fate.

LONDON, Dec. 8.—Much interest is felt in England in the fate of Sophie Gnenseberg, the female Nihilist conspirator, condemned to death for being the em's spy of revolutionists, who had plotted the death of the czar. Of her guilt there seems to be no doubt, and therefore also no doubt that the sentence will be, if it has not already been, carried out. It is not likely that the public will ever learn what becomes of her, except perhaps, in some brief official report of the execution. As she had bombs in her possession when arrested, and also a proclamation announcing the death of the czar, Alexander III may congratulate himself in having her out of the way. Death would be inflicted by hanging, or she might be strangled in a cell.

This Mayor More Determined.

LONDON, Dec. 8.—The new lord mayor is convinced that it is time for Englishmen to protest against the inhuman treatment of the Jews in Russia, and in defense to a numerously signed call, has appointed next Wednesday as the date of a meeting at the Guild hall. Notwithstanding the seeming indifference of the Russian government, this action on the part of London's chief magistrate is known to be deeply felt, and renewed efforts have been made to throw dust in English eyes, and thereby have the movement dropped, as was done by the preceding lord mayor, Mr. Isaacs, himself a Jew. But this time there will be a meeting.

Queen Emma Hard at Work.

THE HAGUE, Dec. 8.—Queen Emma is taking hold with energy of her duties as regent of Holland. She has called for a full history of the Atcheen war, its causes and progress, and it is understood that she contemplates bringing to a close that fruitless struggle, which has lasted since 1873, and cost Holland over 60,000 lives and nearly £30,000,000. The question of the exactation of import duties by the Congo free state is also likely to be brought to a prompt conclusion. The will of the late king leaves the greater part of his private fortune to Queen Emma.

Valuable Package Stolen.

ANTWERP, Dec. 8.—A package containing 750,000 francs, consigned from an English bank to Amsterdam, has been stolen while en route, the robbery having taken place between Ostend and Antwerp. There is as yet no clew to the thief. Through some carelessness the package was only insured for 1,250 francs.

Cholera in India.

LONDON, Dec. 8.—Advices from India are that cholera broke out in the Second battalion of the Third Goorha regiment while marching in the Chin hills. The regiment encamped at Guatith, where sixty cases and thirty deaths have occurred. There were many more cases between Rangoon and Guatith.

Asking Protection for Bismarck.

PARIS, Dec. 8.—Count Herbert Bismarck has been here more than a week. During his stay he has visited M. De Freycinet, prime minister, for the purpose it is believed, of asking whether the government will protect his father during his sojourn for his health at Nice.

Ministry Threatens to Resign.

BELGRADE, Dec. 8.—The ministry announces that it has decided to resign if the skupchchina discusses the memorandum submitted to it by ex-Queen Natalie relative to her former husband, ex-King Milan.

LEADER OF THIEVES ARRESTED.

A Vast Amount of Stolen Property Recovered at Findlay, Ohio.

FINDLAY, O., Dec. 8.—Burglars lately entered the residence of Dr. J. Kimmel, who, with his family is spending the winter in Europe, and carried off everything of value. Saturday night James Secor, a man who has been conducting a saloon and gambling room was arrested, and when his house was searched four large trunks containing nearly all the articles taken from the Kimmel residence were found.

A further search of the premises brought to light many other articles that have been taken, not only from residences in this city, but from neighboring towns as well. The police believe they have discovered the leader of the thieves that have been operating in northwestern Ohio for three or four months.

STEAMERS COLLIDE.

Fortunately No One is Injured and the Vessels Both Saved.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—The French steamship La Champagne, from this port for Havre, and the British steamer Lisboneuse, from Paris to this port, collided two miles east of Sandy Hook at 5:30 Sunday morning. No lives were lost, and as far as known no person was injured.

Good seamanship and prompt action combined with what is generally termed "good luck" prevented what in all probability would have been a terrible disaster. As it is both vessels lie at their docks, one with a big hole in her bow, the other with a bigger hole in her port quarter. Three thousand dollars will repair the damages of both vessels.

Stepped in Front of a Train.

ZANESVILLE, O., Dec. 8.—William Hollingsworth, aged 35, a well known teamster, was killed at the Fifth street crossing Saturday evening, by a Muskingum Valley train. A Baltimore and Ohio train had just passed, and he stepped in front of the cars and was run over. He leaves a widow and five children, and was a brother of Joseph Hollingsworth, insurance agent, found dying on the streets in Cincinnati a year ago.

DESPERADO SHOT.

The Murderer of Campau Captured.

NOT UNTIL FATALLY WOUNDED.

Desperate Fight Between a Sheriff's Posse and Mervin Kuhns Near Cherubusco, in Which One Officer and the Murderer Are Both Fatally Wounded.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Dec. 8.—Mervin Kuhns, the Fostoria, O., murderer, for whose arrest $1,000 reward is offered, shot and mortally wounded Police officer John Kennelly, at 6 o'clock Saturday evening, at Cherubusco, a small village twenty miles south of here, on the Butler and Elkhorn branch of the Wabash railroad. Kuhns parents are fairly well-to-do country people, living on their farm, ten miles north of Cherubusco.

At no o'clock Saturday Kuhns was noticed by two farmers from that part of the country walking north on Calhoun street, making for the Lake Shore depot, as they supposed, to go to Auburn, where he could catch a train for Cherubusco, and thence home. They at once notified Sheriff Viberg, who, with himself and Deputy Sheriff Lindsay in one carriage, and Deputy Sheriff Wilkinson and Police officer Kennelly in another, started for Cherubusco, as the train had gone.

Viberg and Lindsay took one direction, and Kennelly and Wilkinson another. The latter carriage reached the village first. It was found he had started for his home. Kennelly and Wilkinson started, and soon overtook him. The officer ordered him to throw up his hands, but instead he fired. The bullet entered Kennelly's left cheek, passing out at the back of his neck, crushing the top of the spinal cord, probably causing complete paralysis. Kuhns then started on a run for the woods, but Wilkinson impaled his revolver after him, two of the shots taking effect in Kuhns' back, but he succeeded in escaping on horseback. Kennelly was at once hurried to Cherubusco. The physician there say recovery is impossible.

Reinforcements were then had and a hot pursuit after the desperado was given. Kuhns was found two hours later at a farm house near by, where he fell off his horse. His wounds are fatal. Kuhns' parents have for years resided in the north part of Whitley county, and often came here to trade. Kuhns was well known to many of our young men about town, and it is a matter of great surprise that he should have shown himself here.

Kuhns was brought here yesterday morning and lodged in jail. He lies in the jail hospital under the effects of opiate. He cannot recover. Kennelly is at St. Joseph's hospital and has even chances of life or death. Kuhns denies that he is the murderer of Campau, his pal who was recently found dead at Fostoria, O., though he cannot explain a half-headed bullet wound in his hip.

BULL FIGHTING IN TEXAS.

Soldiers Attend and Leave Eighteen Convicts Escape From Prison.

DENVER, Dec. 8.—A special from El Paso, Tex., to the Republican says: The bull fight Sunday afternoon at Juarez, Mex., were viewed by an immense crowd. They were brutal and fierce in every respect, and one horse ridden by a fighter was horned three times, ripping its left foreleg almost from the body. The bulls were vicious and kept the crowd at a fever of excitement during the afternoon. The last bull was sabred and dragged from the arena dead.

While the soldiers were absent from the post attending the fight, the convict soldiers revolted at the barracks, killing the sergeant of the guards, a corporal and a private. The murderers, eighteen in number, broke from the barracks and escaped to the mountains. They were followed by the soldiers, three overtaken and shot to death and four captured and brought back to the post. They are ordered to be killed at sunrise to-morrow.

GLITTERING GOLD.

The Precious Metal Discovered in Bartholomew County, Ind.

COLUMBUS, Ind., Dec. 8.—Some eighteen miles southwest of this city is the highest point in this state. The elevation is known as Sampson Hill, and is owned by an old German by the name of Gore. The elevation is very rough and rocky. The hill is covered by a luxuriant growth of valuable timber, but has so far been of little value because of the difficulty of reaching it.

The value of this timber has attracted many visitors to this spot of late, and this has led to the exploration of some of the deep gulches in the rocks worn out by the water from the many small springs. A few days ago a metal was discovered in the bed of one of these gulches in considerable quantities, which has since been analyzed and proves to be gold. Great excitement prevails.

Fatally Hurt at a Railway Crossing.

ALLIANCE, O., Dec. 8.—While Augustus Randall, a teamster, was driving across the Cleveland and Pittsburgh railroad at Atwater, a village eight miles north of this city, at noon, Saturday, a westbound passenger struck the wagon, totally demolishing it. Randall was hurled a distance of fifty feet, and fatally injured. He has a wife and family of four small children in destitute circumstances. The horses escaped uninjured.

Ranchman Found Dead in Bed.

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 8.—Mr. R. L. Harper, of Kiowa, Kan., one of the oldest and wealthiest ranchmen in the southwest, was found dead in his bed at the Midland hotel Sunday morning. He had died of consumption.

KING KALAKUA'S MISSION.

He Wants the Hawaiian Islands Annexed to the United States.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 8.—King Kalakaua has not come here merely for health, neither has he come, as some have reported, to float a $2,000,000 loan, on which he would pocket a tidy commission. It has just leaked out that his mission is to propose to the state department the annexation of the Hawaiian Islands to the United States.

This news comes directly from a man largely interested in sugar interests on the islands and may be accepted as authoritative. Of course Kalakaua's officers will deny it, but all the facts show that the king has reached the jumping-off place, and must decide shortly either to risk another revolution or to sell his kingdom and get a pension. He has been authorized by the Hawaiian government to tender the islands to Secretary Blaine on terms which, it is thought, congress will accept.

The sugar planters, as well as Kalakaua, are in the hole. Under the reciprocity they really got a bonus of two cents a pound on all their sugar. Now under the McKinley bill, which makes sugar free, they lose all this, because the growers of this country receive a bounty of two cents a pound. If the Hawaiian Islands come under the American flag the planters would receive this bounty, which would amount to several million per year.

It is believed the administration will receive Kalakaua's overtures with favor. Mr. Blaine on repeated occasions has expressed opinion that sound policy demands that the United States should control the Hawaiian Islands, and he will back any movement for their acquisition on favorable terms. It is not known what demands Kalakaua will make, but the belief is that they will not be excessive.

A MODERN DICK TURPIN.

An Indiana Doctor Charged With Highway Robbery.

ANDERSON, Ind., Dec. 8.—Dr. W. W. Steel, a skilled physician of Waveland, Montgomery county, Ind., is in jail awaiting the action of the circuit court, upon the charge of highway robbery. Steel came to this city last Saturday a week ago. On Tuesday night Charles Lewis, of Markleville, was held up and robbed. He identified Steel and William Green, of this city, as being his assailants.

Both were arrested and had their preliminary hearing, and were Saturday afternoon bound over to court under heavy bonds. The capture of Steel is a lucky one, in that he has been identified as the highwayman that held up Clerk Netterville, Auditor Allen, Cashier Hartman and Frank Humphrey one night in September last, and robbed each of them of sums of money ranging from $5 to $20. Steel is perhaps 35 years old, is of fine physique and single. He is addicted to periodical sprees.

MET WITH A BULLET.

A Desperado Attempts to Hold Up Two Telegraph Operators But Fails.

NAVAJO SPRINGS, Ariz., Dec. 8.—A shooting affray occurred Saturday, resulting in the death of Bud Blake, one of the most feared desperados in this section. Blake rode into town Saturday afternoon, and after fitting up with tanglefoot proceeded to shoot right and left. After terrorizing the citizens he rode across the country in the direction of St. Johns.

About two miles from here he encountered two telegraph operators, R. L. Alexander and R. L. Cotton, returning from an antelope hunt. Riding within fifty yards he called upon them to throw up their hands and received an immediate response in the shape of a volley from a Winchester in the hand of Mr. Alexander and Mr. Cotton's six-shooter. Blake was fatally wounded and died in a few minutes.

Career of Crime Suddenly Ended.

OMAHA, Neb., Dec. 8.—A short time ago Mrs. Martin Overbeck was called to Cincinnati by the illness of her mother. Yesterday Overbeck, who was cashier for the Chicago Lumber company, it is said, took an inmate of a house of ill-fame and went for a drive. The couple had a royal time. Returning in a hilarious condition, Overbeck undertook to drive across the Belt line track in front of a Missouri Pacific express train. His body was hurled high in the air and he was so badly injured that he died shortly afterwards. The woman was unhurt.

Old Man Murdered by Tramps.

LAWRENCE, Kan., Dec. 8.—A Morse, an old man from Manchester, Iowa, was found in an ice house in North Lawrence yesterday with his head horribly crushed and almost dead. He left Linwood, a small station east of this place, for this city Friday night, having several hundred dollars on his person. He was seen with two tramps Friday night. The tramps were arrested in Kansas City last evening and brought to this city. The old man died last evening without regaining consciousness.

Express Train Ran Into.

WILLIAMANTIC, Conn., Dec. 8.—The 11:30 a.m. Boston express train, from here, was run into by the heavy incoming express, and the engine, baggage and mail car of the express were thrown down a thirty-foot embankment. The engineer and fireman escaped injury by jumping. Baggage master Abbott was seriously injured about the shoulder by flying trunks. Mrs. John M. Paine, of Boston, had an arm broken, and Mail Agent Lamb's side was bruised.

Will Hang on February 4.

PADUCAH, Ky., Dec. 8.—The court of appeals at Frankfort

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Proprietors.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1890

For the first time in twenty years the straight Democratic ticket was elected at Frankfort Saturday. The party continues to get there right along.

DURING the forty-nine years of his life, the Prince of Wales has drawn $16,500,000 from the public treasury of Great Britain and his debts now amount to $8,000,000. His Highness comes high, but the people of Great Britain can't very well help themselves.

THE Constitutional convention Saturday adopted a clause making the vote-buyers and vote-sellers equally culpable and subject to the same punishment. This is simply the old law on the subject, one that has been a dead letter for years. An amendment was afterwards adopted, however, giving the Legislature the right to exempt either party from punishment in order to secure his testimony.

THE Detroit Free Press says: "The vicious assaults of the New York Sun upon Mr. Cleveland are as foolish as they are unjust. These attacks have been of the most scurrilous nature and have been marked by a vulgar personality that showed poverty of ammunition. They will assuredly react upon the paper that has published them, and will tend to advance the interests of the person whom they are intended to injure."

THE Democratic majority in Texas this year is about 175,000 on its Governor vote and 167,000 on the Congressional vote. The official returns from this and several other States are not yet obtainable, but the net excess of Democratic votes over Republican votes this year will be about 800,000, the Democratic majorities or pluralities being about 1,000,000, and the Republican majorities or pluralities 200,000. In 1888 we were nearly 100,000 ahead of the Republicans; now we are 800,000. If they pass the force bill we will beat them by 1,500,000 in 1892—National Democrat.

Taxes.

People who complain about taxes being high should glance over the figures below. The rates of taxation on the one hundred dollars, levied for all purposes on the property listed within the incorporated towns and villages of Clermont, Brown and Adams counties, Ohio, for the year 1890, are as follows:

Clermont County—Batavia, $2.40; Williamsburg, $2.16; Bethel, $2.34; Felicity, $2.48; Moscow, $1.90; Neville, $2.10; New Richmond, $2.60; Milford, $2.80; Loveland; $3.22; New Boston, $2.50. Average for ten, $2.45.

Brown County—Ripley, $2.62; Aberdeen, $2.93; Georgetown, $2.83; Higginport, $3.93; Hamersville, $2.05; Fayetteville, $1.90; Mt. Oreb, $2.75; Russellville, $2.18. Average for eight, $2.81.

Adams County—Rome, $2.30; Manchester, $2.70; Peebles, $2.70; West Union, $2.80; Winchester, $2.50. Average for five, $2.60. Average for the three counties, $3.62.

The tax rate in Maysville for all purposes—city, county and State—is $1.95 on the $100, of which $1.25 is for city, 27 cents for county and 42½ cents for State purposes.

News for the Farmer.

Thirty-five horses were sold at Lexington Friday by J. K. McGibben & Co. for $37,840.

It is reported that a colony of about twenty-five northern farmers have purchased three thousand acres of land in Cullah County, Ala., and will begin to try co-operative farming. There is to be a joint stock company with a capital of $200,000, limited to two hundred shares, and no one can have more than one share.

Many horses are dying near Paducah from a disease not known, but by some called blind staggers. In the town and county a number of horses have died, and the same report comes from all the "Purchase" counties, particularly Ballard, Carlisle, Hickman, Graves and Fulton. The disease was first credited to wormy corn, but horses not fed on corn have died also. —Exchange.

Interesting Items About the Railways. Ten miles of the Kinnickinnick road will be completed by the middle of this month. Four or five miles of the line is in operation now.

The net earnings of the C. and O. for the four months ending October 31 were $855,691, an increase of $43,063 over these for the corresponding period of last year.

The earnings of the Chesapeake and Ohio for the fourth week of November show an increase of $64,423.74 over those for the corresponding week of last year. The figures are:

1890.....	$209,844 43
1889.....	145,420 69
Increase.....	$ 64,423 74

THE BIBLE SOCIETY.

The annual meeting of the Maysville and Mason County Bible Society was held last night at the Central Presbyterian Church. There was a large crowd present. The ministers in attendance were Rev. B. W. Mebane, Rev. John S. Haye, D. D., Rev. Thomas Hanford, D. D., Rev. J. E. Wright, Rev. C. S. Lucas, all of this city; Rev. I. S. McElroy, of Lexington, and Rev. Geo. P. Hays, D. D., of Kansas City. Mr. J. Jas. Wood, President of the society, presided.

The services were opened with music, followed by a reading of the scriptures by Rev. B. W. Mebane and prayer by Rev. J. E. Wright.

The President then announced Messrs. W. N. Howe, John C. Adamson, I. M. Lane, Josiah Wilson and H. L. Newell as a committee to nominate officers for the ensuing year, and to select the time and place for the next annual meeting.

The Secretary, Mr. John Duley, read the minutes of the last annual meeting, and the proceedings of the Executive Board during the year. He also read the report of Mr. James Smith, Treas. and Depositary. This report showed the following: Value of Bibles and Testaments in Depository Dec. 1st, 1889, $119.38; value of books since received, $212.92; total, $332.30. The expenditures for the year amounted to $119.84, leaving the value of books in Depository Dec. 1st, 1890, $212.46. During the year thirty Bibles of the value of $15.20 were donated to the county infirmary, jail and city slums house, and Mr. Geo. Burrows sold or donated Bibles, to the value of $55.39 to destitute families in this city and Chester. The society sent $88.08 during the year to the American Bible Society.

On Dec. 2nd, 1889, collections were taken up in various city churches for the benefit of the society with the following result:

First Presbyterian Church.....	$30.07
Central Presbyterian Church.....	5.45
Christian Church.....	8.30
M. E. Church, South.....	15.45
Total.....	$59.27

President—J. Jas. Wood.
Vice President—The pastors of the city.
Secretary—John Duley.
Treasurer and Depositary—James Smith.
Executive Committee—C. Shultz Wood, L. M. Mills, W. H. Sauvay, A. M. J. Cochran and John W. Boulden.

The committee also reported they had selected the M. E. Church, Third street, as the place of the next annual meeting, which would be held the first Sunday of December, 1891. The report was approved.

Addresses were delivered by Rev. C. S. Lucas, Dr. Geo. P. Hays and Dr. Hanford, which were interspersed with selections from Gospel Hymns.

A collection was taken up, amounting to $12.10, after which the doxology was sung, and the benediction was then pronounced by Dr. John Hays.

The Dangers of Practical Joking.

Our Vienna correspondent telegraphs: "Prof. Kraftebing, the specialist for nervous complaints, in a lecture has shown the serious consequences which may result from practical joking. A little girl of six, whose treatment the Professor has undertaken, had just dropped off to sleep when her uncle came in to see the family. He thought it would be fun to wake her suddenly, and before the mother could prevent him he poured cold water out of a bottle upon the sleeping child's face and hands. The sudden fright caused a nervous complaint, and the little girl has lost all power over the muscles of her face and hands. Alternately her face and hands are subjected to convulsive movements, which tire the child so much that after a while she falls back exhausted. Prof. Kraftebing, however, hopes to cure her in a few weeks."—London Daily News.

Ptolemy.

Mr. Gus Calvert, of Tuckahoe Stock Farm, purchased a few days ago, from W. T. Withers, of Lexington, a bay stallion, Ptolemy No. 5,179, standard bred. Ptolemy was foaled April, 1885, and is a full brother to Waymart, 2,271, sired by Happy Medium, sire of sixty-one 2:30 performers or better. First dam Patsy F. (dam of Waymart, 2,271), by Mambrino Patchen; second dam by Hiatoa; third and fourth dams thoroughbred.

Ptolemy is a beautiful bay, 16½ hands high. He has been handled but little but can show a 2:30 gait.

VERY APPROPRIATE.

The Kentucky Home Cook Book—New and Revised Edition.

This book has become so popular that no introduction to the public is needed. It is a book of receipts contributed, after tests proving their excellence, by Kentucky ladies, which is a guarantee of its merit.

The receipts have been compiled under the auspices of the Mite Society of the M. E. Church, South, Maysville.

It has become very popular and is having a large sale.

It is a very appropriate and suitable thing for a Christmas present to a lady. Price, $1.50.

It may be found at:

Orders will receive prompt attention if addressed to Miss ALLIE BASCOM, Secretary, d1d27t Maysville, Ky.

Here and There.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Watson have returned home from their bridal tour.

Mr. W. T. Parry, of Carpenter, Tenn., is on a visit to his father near Washington.

Miss Mamie Scott and Miss Mira Duke, of Maysville, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. Perrie.

Rev. F. S. Pollitt and wife, of Harrodsburg, are spending a few days at their home in Washington.

Mr. John V. Lytle, Superintendent of the Paris gas works, was in town yesterday on a visit to relatives.

Just Received.

We take pleasure in stating to our friends and patrons that we have just received a globe enameler, a machine just invented for imparting to photographs that beautiful satin finish. All work will be finished by it without additional cost. Respectfully, 8d2t KACKLEY & CADY.

CHARLIE BOWEN was stabbed in the right side by Frank Estep Saturday night in front of Barkley's shoe store. The wound is not a dangerous one. Estep was actuated by downright deviltry and skipped out, and has not been caught. Both are about twelve years old.

Chester Council Proceedings.

The Town Council of Chester met Friday at 7 p. m., all members present except R. V. Dryden.

The Mayor's report was read and received. Fines assessed for the month were as follows: For breach of peace, $5; drunkenness, $2; total, $8.

The Marshal reported he had received for fines from Marshal $7, and had paid out on orders to School Board, $4; balance on hand, $8. Taxes none.

The account of C. W. B. Holiday for four months' salary while Mayor of Chester in 1889 was presented, and after some debate was allowed.

U. S. Marshal Dressell asked for a duplicate of order which had been lost, for $1.00.

Josh Billings' Philosophy.

Admire beauty, but don't worship it.

Those who have never achieved success are always the most ready to tell others how few do it.

Whenever you find a man who is strictly honest, you will find one who is truly courageous.

There is quite a difference between a luminous and a voluminous writer, although many authors confound the two.

If you wish to retain the friendship, or even love, of another, you must keep them in your hands and not get into theirs.

You must be well undertaken to drown a knot-hole out, by pouring water into it, as to outlook sun-wimmin' I know.

It will do to few endorse sum men, but not their paper; while there are others whose paper is safer to endorse than their character.

I am satisfied that the 2 greatest bores in the world are the Hoosier tunnel and the author who is hunting up a publisher for his first book.

Cunning men are sure to get caught at last; and when they are caught, they are like a fox in the trap—the slyest looking fox you ever see.

In Bible times when Balaam's ass spoke it was a miracle; but the daze of miracles are over, and the greatest asses we have in these times are the greatest talkers.

We laugh at sheep because when one of them leads the way all the rest follow, however ridiculous it may be; and I suppose sheep laugh when they see us doing the very same thing.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had children, she gave them Castoria.

FIRST ONLY!

FIRST IN LOW PRICES.

FIRST IN QUALITIES.

FIRST IN THE INTERESTS OF THE PEOPLE.

We are the first in low prices because we have the advantage of getting quantity discounts, in addition to cash discounts, and give our customers the benefit of these.

We are first in qualities because we have the whole field of manufacturers to select from; we cull from the very best of these, and the world cannot surpass them. This makes us first hands to the people— we are no "middle man"—our customers get from us the benefits of the profits of the "middle man." We do not buy of jobbers. We know no middle condition. The "middle man" is a relic of the moss-covered past.

We are first in the interests of the people because our system, from which we never vary, of necessity works to their interest. Our unalterable rule is cash and one price. We treat all alike in respect to prices. We charge Mr. Smith, who has no Bank account, just the same for a pair of shoes that we charge Mr. Jones, the coupon clipper, for a similar pair. We do not burden the people with debts. We have no credit customers of the "good" class to saddle with percentage for delinquencies, making them carry our bad debts.

We have no shelf-worn goods, no "crabs" or "trash." Our goods are new; we do not permit them to get old—our prices force them to go.

The cheapest, the newest, the best. Come and see us; we will save you money.

A POOR SHOWING.

The Tobacco Growers will Have to Do Better Than They Did Last Week,

If They Want to "Bust" That Combine—What was Done at Saturday's Meeting.

Another meeting of the tobacco growers was held at the court house Saturday afternoon. The attendance was a little better than it was at the previous meeting.

Mr. John B. Holton presided and stated they had met to hear reports from the soliciting committees of the various precincts.

Mr. L. W. Galbraith was appointed Secretary and upon a call of precincts, the committees reported as follows:

Maysville No. 1.—No report.

Chester—No report.

Orangeburg—No report.

Lewisburg—Reported $150 conditional and $150 unconditional stock. It was stated that more can be secured.

Mayslick—Reported $400 unconditional stock, and that the precinct had not been completed.

Sardis—Had not been canvassed.

Murphyville—No report.

Germantown—No report.

Fern Leaf—No report.

Minerva—No report.

Dover—$140 conditional stock.

Washington—$700 conditional stock and $290 unconditional stock.

On motion A. J. Fox, L. Y. Browning and S. H. Mitchell were added to the soliciting committees in Maysville precincts.

Mr. Wm. Luttrell offered the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, The tobacco growers of Northeastern Kentucky and Ohio in convention assembled in the city of Maysville, Ky., Dec. 6th, 1890, endorse the action of the Tobacco Growers Congress held at Lexington, Ky., Oct. 12th, and,

WHEREAS, The future prosperity of our most important industry depends upon the perfection of a plan by which we can market our own tobacco, therefore be it

Resolved, That it is the sense of this meeting that the tobacco growers of Kentucky and Ohio should strive with unceasing efforts to make successful the enterprise they have undertaken.

Resolved, Realizing the magnitude of this undertaking and believing that longer time will develop more satisfactory results, not only by way of raising stock subscription, but will insure larger subscriptions from cities desiring our plants, we recommend that the Tobacco Growers Association that meets at Louisville the 12th inst., adjourn to meet again at such place and at such time in February, 1891, as it may deem proper, provided sufficient amount of stock has not been raised to begin operations.

Resolved, That we favor the appointment of active soliciting committeemen in every county, to be paid a reasonable per cent. of all unconditional stock raised by said committeemen for this association, said subscription to be reported to the February meeting of this association.

Resolved, As the tobacco warehousemen of Louisville and Cincinnati have expressed a willingness to sell to the farmers a controlling interest in their warehouses to be operated and controlled under the Constitution and by-laws of the Tobacco Growers Association of Kentucky, be it further

Resolved, That we favor the appointment of a committee by the Louisville convention to confer with a committee of the warehouse syndicate to receive such propositions as they may make and report same to the Kentucky Tobacco Growers Association at its next regular meeting.

After a sharp debate in which Messrs. Hunter, Luttrell, Robb and Dr. Reid took part the resolutions were lost.

Mr. W. LaRue Thomas, in behalf of the city of Maysville and the Commercial Club, explained that there had been no subscription papers circulated in the city of Maysville.

Mr. E. M. Devore, of Brown County, Ohio, was called out and said the farmers of Brown County hardly favor the establishment of warehouses alone, but want manufacturers in addition thereto.

Mr. Louis Pangburn, also of Brown County, said there is considerable interest in this movement on his side of the river and even dealers are ready to take stock, but the Ohio farmers are waiting for the Kentucky growers to take the initiative steps.

On motion, twelve representative tobacco growers of Brown County were added to the list of delegates to meet in Louisville on the 12th of this month.

Soliciting committees of this county were continued to report on County Court day in January, 1891.

On motion the meeting adjourned to meet on County Court day in January.

THERE are a nice lot of suckers living up at Ashland, and if they continue to allow themselves to be roped in on every scheme as they have been doing of late, it will not be a great while before all the swindlers will turn their steps towards that place whenever they get hard up. The scalded arm and head racket was worked successfully on the people up there a month or so ago, and one day last week the News says: "A rather good looking gentleman called on the merchants and asked to see the bookkeeper. On being shown that personage, he set down a column of figures and added them up from the left instead of the right, then patting the merchant or bookkeeper on the back he would say it was a great scheme, and he would give it away for fifty cents. Nearly every merchant in the city bit at the bait, to find later that the slick young man was a great fraud, and the slick man with their half dollar was gone."

Resolved, That we favor the appointment of active soliciting committeemen in every county, to be paid a reasonable per cent. of all unconditional stock raised by said committeemen for this association, said subscription to be reported to the February meeting of this association.

Resolved, That we favor the appointment of a committee by the Louisville convention to confer with a committee of the warehouse syndicate to receive such propositions as they may make and report same to the Kentucky Tobacco Growers Association at its next regular meeting.

CONGRESS PROGRAM.

No Order of Business Determined On.

THE FEDERAL ELECTION BILL.

It Will Be Pushed Forward in the Senate and Probably a Vote Reached This Week—Thirty-Three Public Buildings Bills on the House Calendar—Other Washington Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—The Republican caucus committee has not determined on an order of business as yet, so nothing definite can be known of the prospects of business in that body except that the debate on the Federal election bill will be pushed forward during the week. The election bill is the unfinished business of the senate, and as such it comes up each day at 2 o'clock. If the Democratic senators continue to speak at length in opposition to the bill during the week, the Republican senators will doubtless insist that it be taken up immediately after the morning business to the exclusion of calendar business, in order that it may be brought to a vote at as early a day as possible.

Senator Blair may make another effort during the week to get the labor bills before the senate, but this is extremely doubtful. So much opposition has developed that he does not care to make the issue on the question of consideration.

Should the caucus committee deem it necessary to bring in the proposition to change the rules so as to establish the previous question, the debate on the election bill may be diverted into a discussion of this question; but it is altogether unlikely that the committee will act at this time. A great many of the Republican senators believe that, rather than see the rules changed and so much power put in the hands of the majority, the Democrats will virtually consent to the passage of the election bill.

The committee on appropriations will get to work on the pension bill this week, and will doubtless be ready to report it before the week is completed.

There are thirty-three public building bills on the calendar of the house awaiting final action, and the committee on rules will give the public building committee a day and possibly two days this week for the disposition of their measures. Speaker Reed shut down on public building appropriations last session, but he has agreed to the request for a special day in which to dispose of the bills referred to. It is probable, however, that there will be more public building legislation this season excepting perhaps on the last six days of the congress, which are usually given up to the passage of bills under suspension of the rules.

The commerce committee has a number of bridge bills to dispose of, and a day will probably be granted for their final consideration and passage. During the week it is likely that the appropriations committee will report the fortification and the deficiency appropriation bills, and an effort will be made to have these considered if the reports are made early in the week. Monday will be devoted to business affecting the District of Columbia.

Saturday's Congress.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—The senate Saturday passed a resolution calling on the attorney general for a list of election supervisors. Mr. Morgan offered a resolution calling for a statement of money paid on requisition of Supervisor Davenport of New York, but it went over under objection. House amendments to the bill to issue arms to settlers was agreed to and Mr. Gray continued his remarks in opposition to the elections bill.

In the house the resolution directing the president to request Mrs. Grant to permit the removal of the remains of the general to Arlington, was debated without action. Senate bill, appropriating $100,000 to buy rations for the Sioux Indians, was passed with verbal amendments; also, senate bill to retire Gen. Stoneman. At 4:30 the house adjourned.

Honoring Stanley.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—Mr. Henry M. Stanley, since his arrival here, has been the subject of much social attention. He lunched with the president Saturday afternoon and Saturday night dined with Col. John Hay.

JOE COBURN DEAD.

The World Renowned Pugilist Passes Away After an Illness of Six Months.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—Joe Coburn, for many years heavy-weight champion pugilist of the world, passed away at his residence, No. 235 West Thirty-fifth street, Saturday night, after an illness of a little over six months. The pugilist caught a severe cold last fall, from which he contracted a severe bronchial attack, which developed into consumption, which eventually resulted in his death.

Coburn was known throughout the civilized world. He has had the gloves on with all of the champions, but in his palmy days bare knuckles were the favorites. He came to this country when quite a lad. He first saw the light of day in Middletown, County Armagh, Ireland, on June 20, 1835. The last time he fought for the championship was November 30, 1870, when he fought a draw with Jim Mace. It was an event of great interest, and was decided near New Orleans.

Coburn died in poverty, but he had a few solid friends left, who stood by him to the end. Coburn has never been himself since he served his term in Sing Sing. He was sent there for ten years for a felonious assault committed during a wordy altercation on Sixth avenue. He was a well-conducted prisoner, and received the usual commutation for good behavior.

Well Known Turf Man Dead.

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 8.—Morrison McClelland, aged 70, the veteran turf man and father of Byron McClelland, died yesterday at Lexington. McClelland had been a trainer for fifty years.

FOUGHT NEARLY SIX HOURS.

Both Men Too Tired to Fight Longer and it was Decided a Draw.

OMAHA, Dec. 8.—Before the South Omaha club Saturday night, Tommy White of Chicago, and Dan Daly of Bangor, Me., fought five hours and fifty-five minutes without reaching a decision. White had the best of Daly in height and reach, but Daly was the cleverest of the pair. In the first few rounds White tried for a knock-out and landed several times heavily.

In the twentieth round Daly closed White's left eye, and in the thirty-fourth the Chicago man's mouth was smashed so hard that it bled until the end. In rounds thirty-seven to forty-two White tried hard for a knock-out, but Daly avoided him. Until the seventy-first round it was a walk around, when Daly did a little more fighting. White was badly winded but still fought well. In the ninety-first round both men were too tired to proceed and the fight was declared a draw.

Sad Death on a Railway Train.

LIMA, O., Dec. 8.—James McCue, of Allegheny City, died on the eastbound passenger train of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago road Saturday afternoon at Monroeville, Ind. He had been through Colorado and California, hoping to receive benefit or possible cure from that terrible malady, consumption, but his hopes were in vain, and he was trying to reach home in company of his young wife and sister. When near Monroeville he was taken with a severe hemorrhage, which proved fatal. His body was removed from the train at Van Wert, and will have to be forwarded by the authorities, as his wife and sister are penniless. It is a very sad case.

THE COURT OF ST. JAMES.

Minister Lincoln Knows Nothing of a Contemplated Change.

CHICAGO, Dec. 8.—Before the South Omaha club Saturday night, Tommy White of Chicago, and Dan Daly of Bangor, Me., fought five hours and fifty-five minutes without reaching a decision. White had the best of Daly in height and reach, but Daly was the cleverest of the pair. In the first few rounds White tried for a knock-out and landed several times heavily.

In the twentieth round Daly closed White's left eye, and in the thirty-fourth the Chicago man's mouth was smashed so hard that it bled until the end. Leprosy Among Canadian Indians.

OTTAWA, Ont., Dec. 8.—A gentleman from Paris advanced the statement that William Waldorf Astor would succeed Robert T. Lincoln as minister to the court of St. James. Mr. Lincoln in an interview, treated the matter rather disdainfully, and said: "Newspaper rumors come thick and fast, and I don't think it necessary even to deny many of them. In regard to this last rumor, I have not as yet been advised of any change, and rather think it may come I shall not hear of it first from a newspaper reporter."

Child Burned to Death.

OWENSBOURG, Ky., Dec. 8.—A 10-year-old daughter of Frank Taylor, colored, was most horribly burned to death near Lexington, this county. Her clothing caught fire from an open grate, and her elder sister threw a quilt around her and ran for help. When assistance arrived the poor child had fallen out of the door of the house, and was found dead, burned to a crisp.

Escaped Arrest, but Lost His Life.

MARION, O., Dec. 8.—James Brown, the young man who attempted rape on a young girl here, and was run over by the cars in his efforts to escape, died yesterday from the injuries received. His father came after the remains and took them to his home. It is claimed that the young man was under the influence of liquor when the act was committed.

A Woman Sentenced for Life.

CHICAGO, Dec. 8.—The jury Saturday night in the case of Mamie Starr, charged with murdering Mr. and Mrs. Newland by placing poison in their food, returned a verdict of guilty of murder and fixed her punishment at imprisonment in the penitentiary for the period of her natural life. The prisoner fainted on hearing the verdict.

Shot Through the Head While Hunting.

MARSHALL, O., Dec. 8.—Oscar Shriner, the 18-year-old son of Hiram Shriner, a wealthy farmer living north of this city, was out hunting Saturday with his brother. The rifle which Oscar carried was accidentally discharged, the ball entering his head and he was killed almost instantly.

A Match Will Remove Ink.

It is not generally known that ink stains can readily be removed from the fingers with the head of a parlor match. A bookkeeper in a Wall street banking house is said to have made the discovery. Moisten the ink stained spot and rub it gently with the head of the match, keeping the skin wet so that it will not be burned. The stain rapidly disappears. The match should not be used where there is a cut. Violet ink stains can often be removed by rubbing them with a rough woolen cloth. A coat sleeve answers very well.—New York Times.

Match Will Remove Ink.

It is not generally known that the custom of keeping birthdays is many thousands of years old. It is recorded in the fortieth chapter of Genesis, twentieth verse: "And it came to pass the third day, which was Pharaoh's birthday, that he made a feast unto all his servants."
